

Child Safeguarding Statement of Crooked House & Kildare Youth Theatre

1. Name of service being provided: Kildare Youth Theatre

2. Nature of service and principles to safeguard children from harm

Kildare Youth Theatre is committed to a young-person centred approach in our work. We undertake to provide a safe environment and positive experience, the welfare of the young person being of paramount importance.

We will adhere to Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017).

We have developed policies and procedures to ensure this commitment is enshrined in all aspects of the youth theatre. Our Welfare and Child Protection Policy incorporates all policies and procedures that relate to work with young people. The board of Crooked House recognises it holds ultimate responsibility for the wellbeing of members and staff and volunteers. Our policy is targeted at all adults involved in the youth theatre, be they staff or volunteers. Parents/guardians will be informed of relevant policies and procedures. Youth theatre members will be informed of procedures and policies as they relate to their participation.

We work with young people aged between 10 and 30. We carry out a range of youth theatre related activities including:

- Drama Workshops
- Theatre Productions
- Rehearsals
- Trips away/International Exchanges
- Training Programmes
- Work in schools and youth projects

3. Risk Assessment

Section 2 of the Children First Act 2015 defines harm as follows: 'harm means in relation to a child– (a) assault, ill-treatment or neglect of the child in a manner that seriously affects, or is likely to seriously affect the child's health, development or welfare, or, (b) sexual abuse of the child.'
